The Ancient Mystery of Blood Money and Its Antidote

I. Freedom from Blood Money

A. The Melchizedek Priesthood protects:

1. The Melchizedek priesthood protects.
2. How it protects wealth and souls from marketplace corruption and “blood money.”

B. The danger of marketplace prosperity:

1. The marketplace is more dangerous than the battlefield.
2. The greatest spiritual tests often come when we are winning, not losing.
3. Swords may wound the body, but prosperity can quietly corrupt the soul.
4. Wealth gathered from conflict carries a hidden stain and seeks ownership.
5. Abram was vulnerable to the power of economics after defeating the kings.

C. Blood Money: Why wealth from unrighteous systems requires spiritual redemption.

1. Ownership via touch: Blood money always seeks ownership of the one who touches it.
2. Hidden Corruption: Wealth gathered from war or unrighteous systems is financed by blood.

3. Systemic allegiance: Accepting Sodom's wealth instigates a silent allegiance to a demonic system.

II. The Melchizedek Interception

How God anchors the heart before influence expands.

- A. Sudden arrival: Melchizedek appears without genealogy, poised to intercept Abram between war and wealth.
- B. Divine provision: He brings bread and wine, introducing spiritual possibilities from the superior realm.
- C. Consecration first. Before wealth increases, worship must deepen. Hearts must be anchored in priesthood.

III. Three Pillars of Divine Protection

Essential safeguards against the "blood money sport" of prosperity.

- A. Communion: Protects the soul, including the will, mind, and emotions, from marketplace atmospheres.
- B. Priesthood: Protects the calling and who God called us to be from the foundation of the world.
- C. Tithing: Protects the money generated in the marketplace from spiritual devourers.

IV. The Conflict: The Demonic Trade Proposal

Rejecting the Sodomitic economic system of "goods over people."

- A. King of Sodom: Representative of the Demonic Marketplace: "Give me the people."
- B. Abram, Father of Faith: "I will not take."

V. Spiritual Tech: Tithing as Spiritual Technology

The mechanics of redeeming money from a cursed economy.

A. Economic exorcism:

1. Dethrones mammon and its psychological grip.
2. Separates the “holy” from the common.
3. Redirects human trust solely towards God.

B. Divine alignment:

1. Declares that all increase belongs first to God.
2. Willingly accepts the covering of the priesthood.
3. Transfers economic allegiance from earth to heaven.

VI. The Mystery of Greater Blessing

- A. “The lesser is blessed by the greater.” (Hebrews 7:7)
- B. Abraham’s wealth became clean by passing through the hands of God’s priest.
- C. The tithe broke the marketplace’s claim over him. You cannot be owned by what you have already surrendered.
- D. Abraham positioned his descendants for covenant promise and future priesthood.

VII. Impact of Spiritual Cleansing

What the tithe performs for the believer’s finances and household.

- A. Sanctifies your take-home pay and avenues for revenue.
- B. Breaks demonic legal claims over your personal finances.
- C. Dethrones greed and prevents Mammon from becoming master.
- D. Activates a spiritual atmosphere for divine interception around the tither.

VIII. Final Warning on “Blood Money”

Warning: Taking unsanctified income as “take-home pay” risks your soul, blessings, and eternal standing unless aligned with God’s commands.
