Cancellation & Refund Policy

Last updated May 12, 2026

PAYMENTS

Your enrollment in the Mastering Kingdom Economics Program with Dr. Francis Myles includes access to the program curriculum, live training sessions, and any bonuses for which you qualified at the time of purchase.

If you choose a payment plan option, your selected payment method will be automatically charged according to the agreed billing schedule. By enrolling in this program, you agree to be contacted by Empower 2000, Inc. (“E2000”) regarding your account, billing activity, or payment updates via email and/or phone if necessary.

If a payment fails to process, E2000 will contact you to update your payment information. If payments remain overdue for more than 30 days, access to the program, member portal, live sessions, and any associated bonuses may be suspended or removed until the account is brought current. No refunds will be issued for suspended or terminated access due to delinquent payments.

REFUNDS

We are committed to providing a transformational learning experience through the Mastering Kingdom Economics Program.

If you are unsatisfied with your purchase, you may submit a written refund request within 30 days of your initial enrollment date by emailing the support team. Upon review, E2000 will work to resolve the issue or process an eligible refund.

Once a refund is issued, your access to the program portal, live trainings, downloadable materials, recordings, and all digital bonuses will be revoked immediately.

No refunds will be granted after 30 days from the original purchase date.

E2000 PARTNERSHIP STATEMENT
