The background of the image is a scenic view of rolling mountains under a dramatic sky. A bright sunburst or lens flare effect emanates from the top center, with rays of light spreading outwards. The sky transitions from a deep blue at the top to a soft pink and orange near the horizon. The mountains are silhouetted against the sky, with some peaks covered in snow or light-colored rock. The overall mood is inspirational and awe-inspiring.

Brian Simmons and his wife Candice have been described as true pioneers in ministry. As a spiritual father and mother, their teaching and spiritual gifts have opened doors in many nations to take the message of authentic awakening and revival to many. For the last 40 years, they have labored together to present Christ in His fullness wherever God sends them. Dr. Simmons is currently working as the lead translator of The Passion Translation. After a dramatic conversion to Christ in 1971, Brian and Candice answered the call of God to leave everything behind and become missionaries to unreached peoples. As a linguist, Brian also served on a team to translate the New Testament into the Paya-Kuna language.

Revelation 7

The Pause That Changes Everything

Masterclass with Brian Simmons

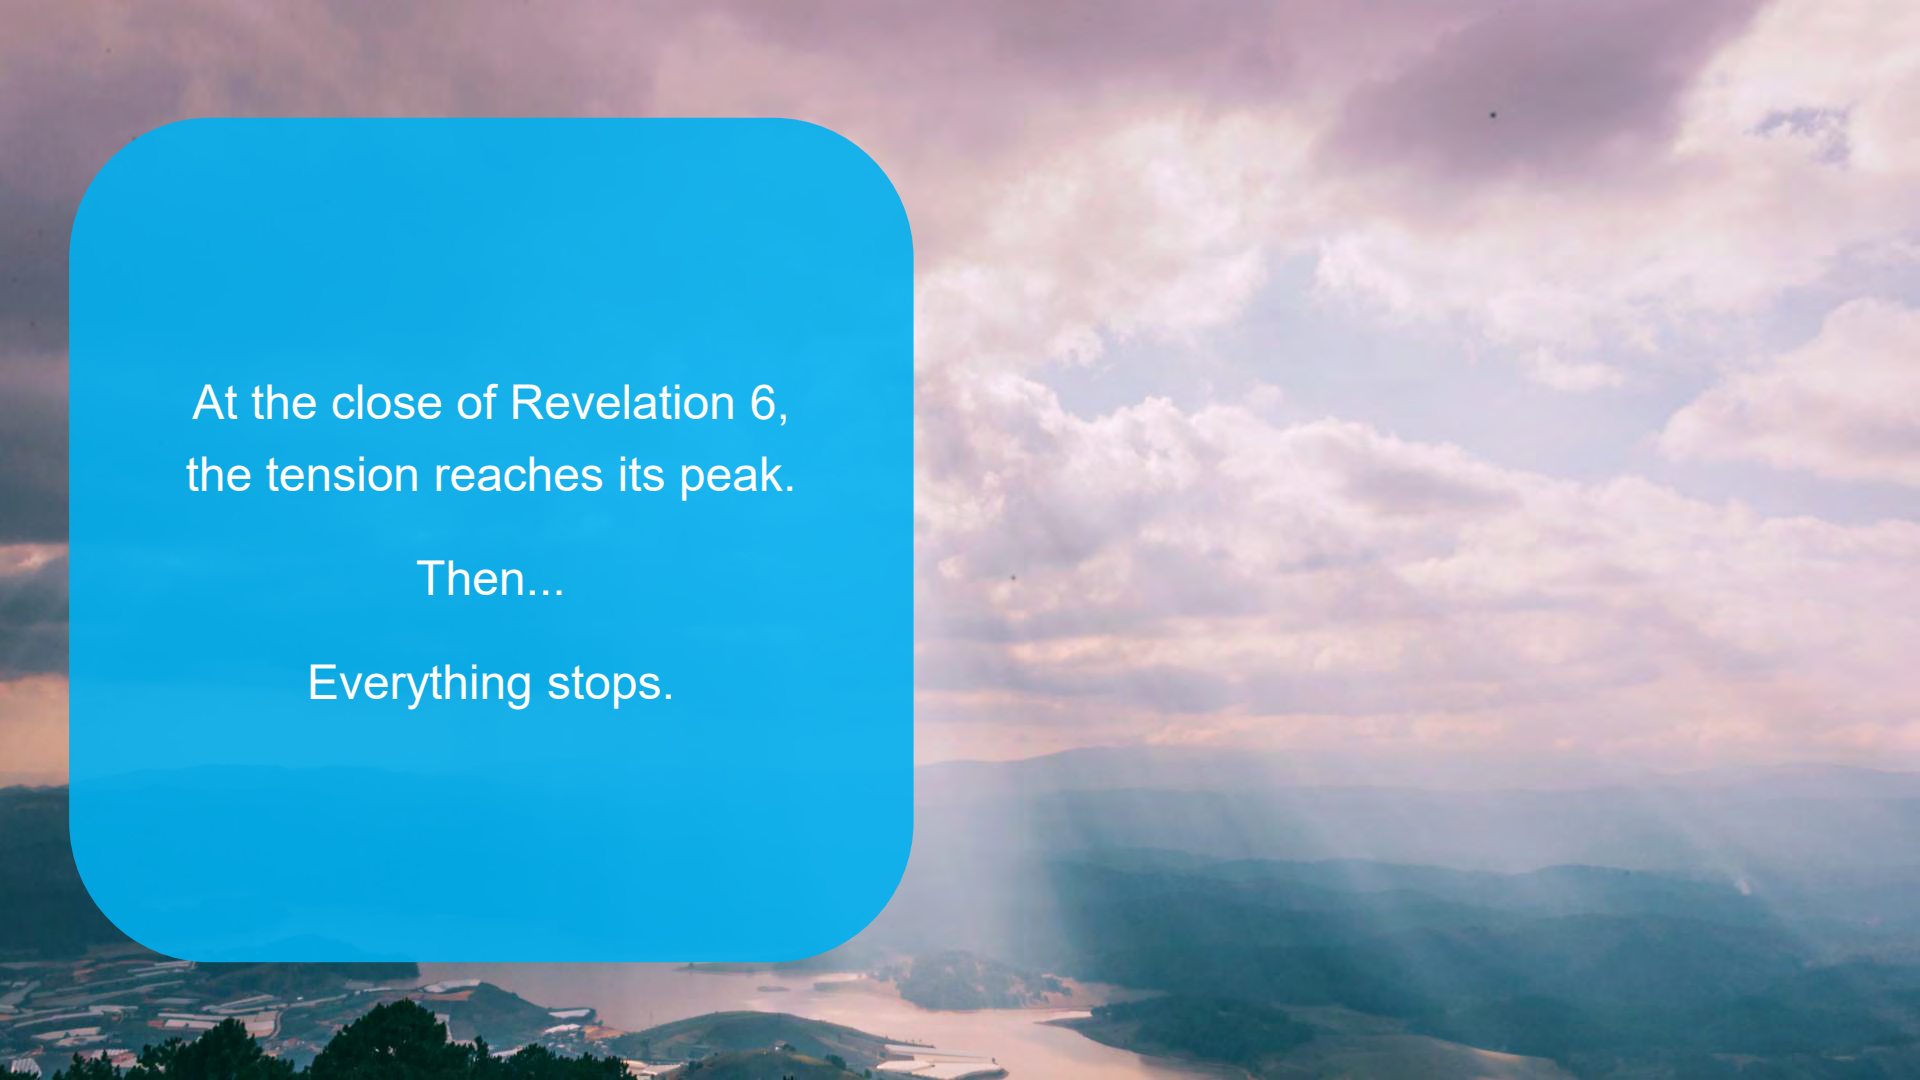

The background image is a dramatic landscape. The upper half is dominated by a sky filled with large, billowing clouds in shades of purple, pink, and grey, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. Below the sky, a dark, silhouetted mountain range stretches across the horizon. In the foreground, a valley is visible, with a winding river or road cutting through it. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

Revelation 7: The Pause That Changes Everything

The background of the image is a scenic landscape. In the foreground, there are dark green trees. Below them, a body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, is visible. The water reflects the light from the sky. In the distance, there are rolling hills and mountains, some of which are shrouded in a light mist or haze. The sky is filled with large, white, fluffy clouds. Sunlight is breaking through the clouds, creating rays of light that illuminate the landscape below. On the left side of the image, there is a large, solid blue rounded rectangle. Inside this rectangle, the text "Heaven Interrupts the Story" is written in a white, sans-serif font.

At the close of Revelation 6, the tension reaches its peak.

Then...

Everything stops.

the earth, restraining the four

Throughout Scripture, God never delays without purpose.

Revelation 7 reminds us that before God does something through His people...

He first does something within His people.

The pattern of Scripture

Preparation before promotion.

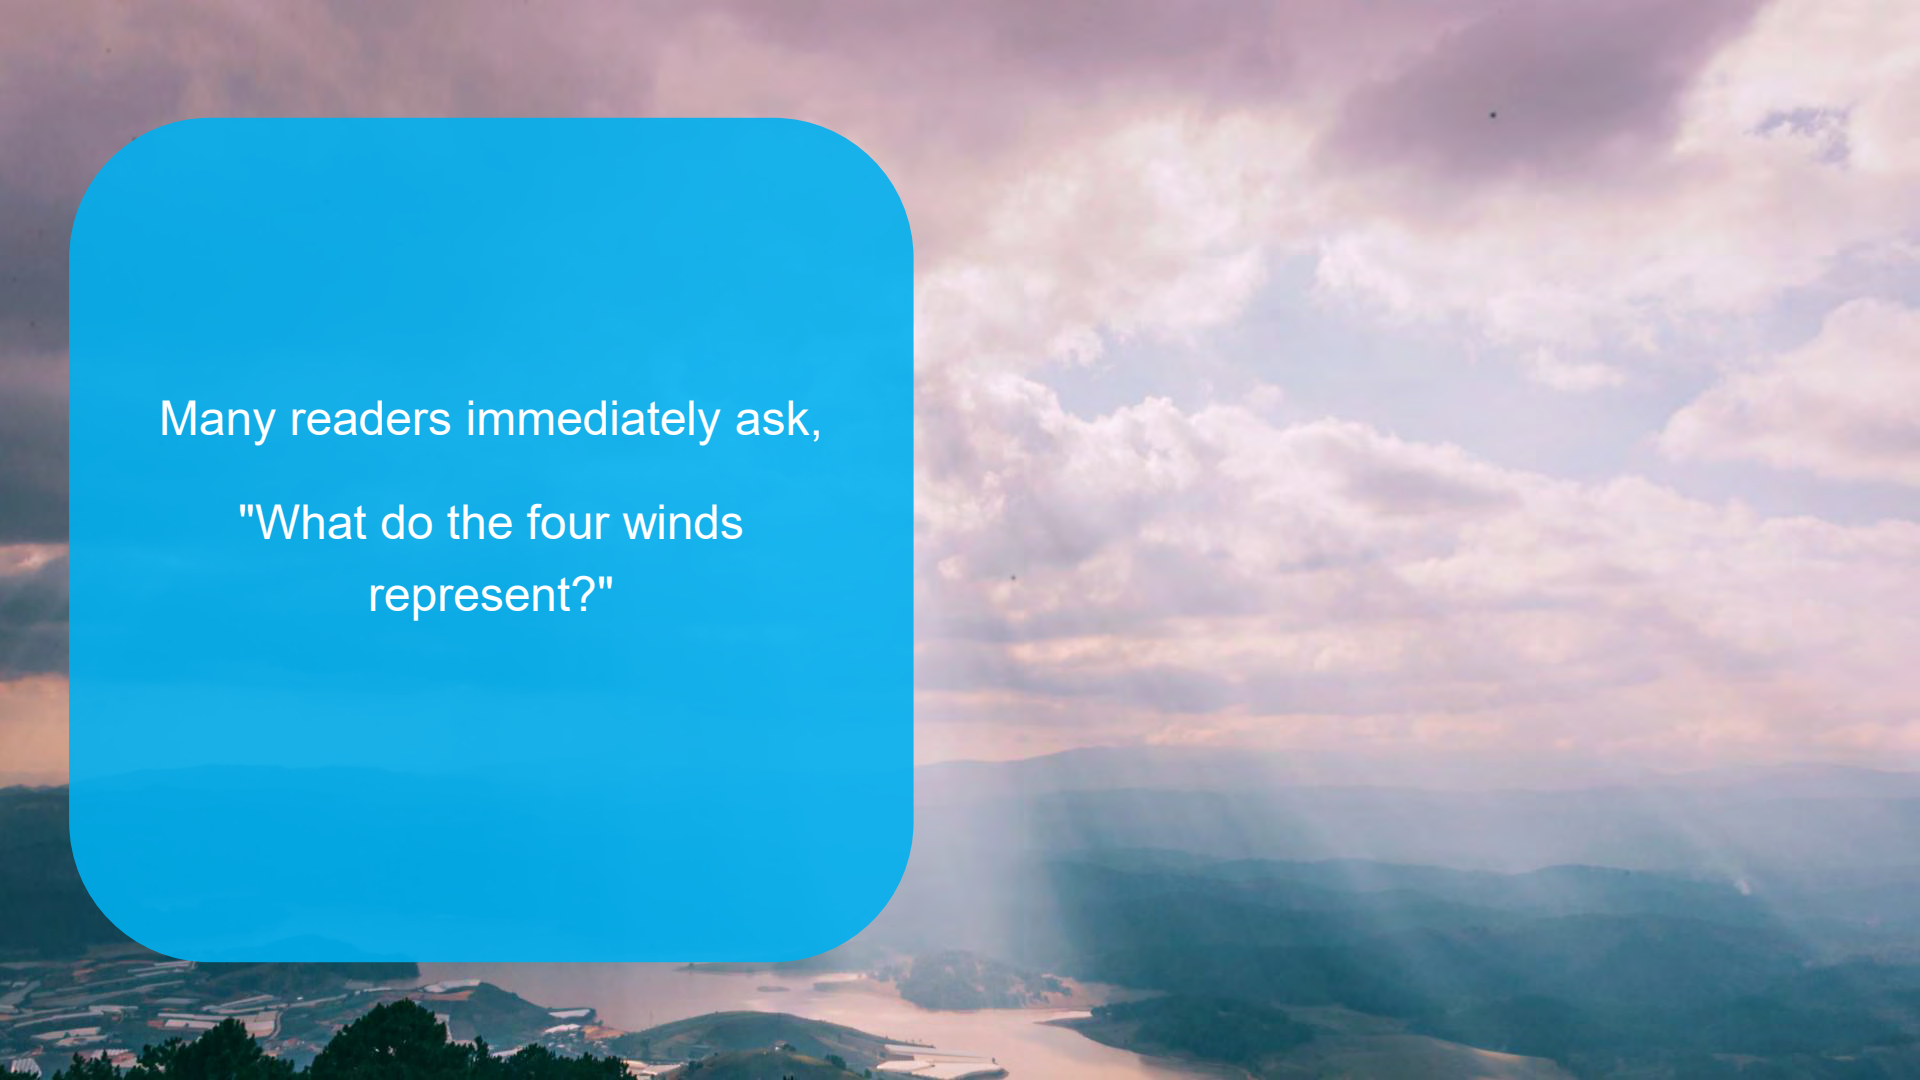

Formation before assignment.

Character before authority.

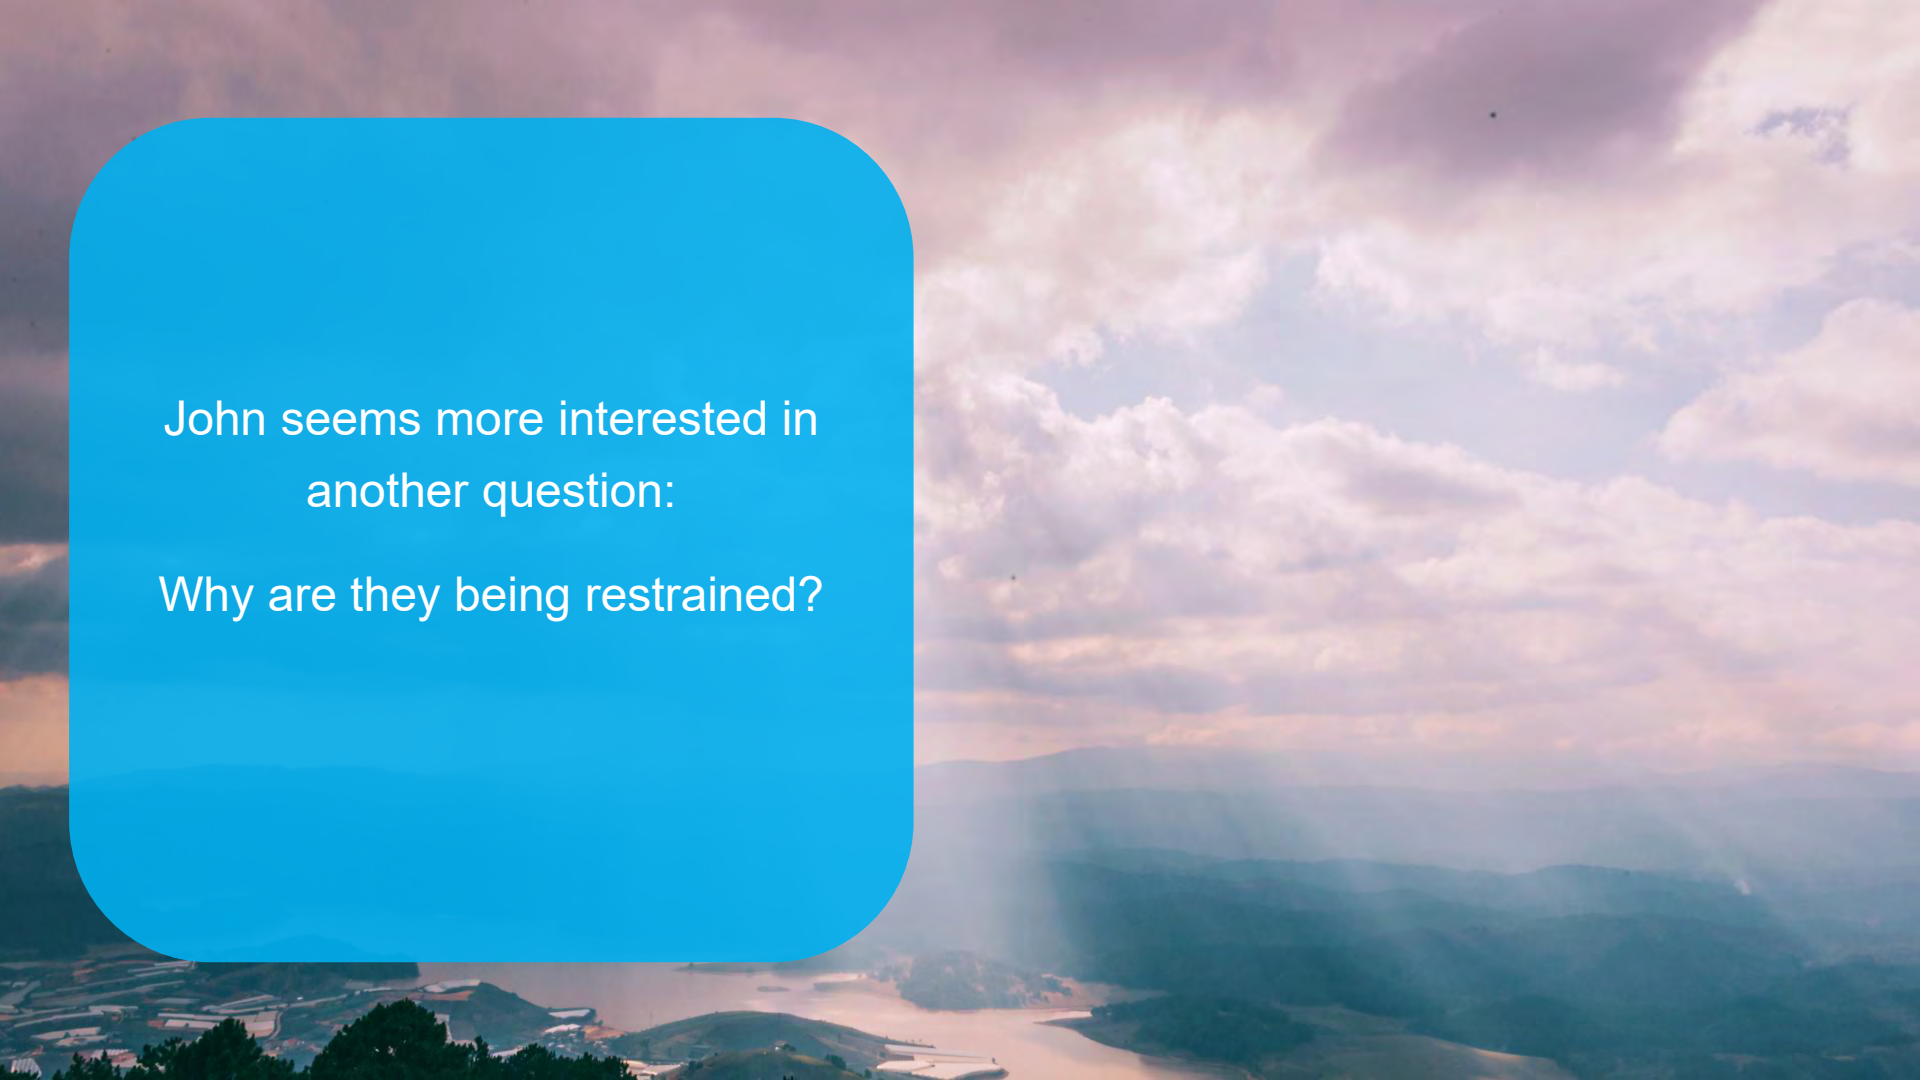

Sonship before rulership.

The background of the slide is a scenic landscape. In the foreground, there are dark green trees. Below them, a body of water, possibly a lake or a wide river, is visible. The middle ground shows rolling green hills and valleys. In the far distance, more hills are visible under a vast sky filled with large, white, fluffy clouds. Sunlight is breaking through the clouds, creating rays of light that illuminate the landscape. A large, solid blue rounded rectangle is positioned on the left side of the image, partially obscuring the landscape. The text "The First Great Question" is written in white inside this rectangle.

"What do the four winds represent?"

John seems more interested in another question:

Why are they being restrained?

The Seal of the Living God

...aise be to the Lord, the God people and redeem them.

He has raised up a horn of salvation for us. Of the house of his servant
David
he said through his holy prophets of long ago,
"A king will be born to us,
and he will be called the Son of David."

The Birth of Jesus

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinus was governor of Syria.) And Joseph went with his wife Mary to the town where he was to be registered.

When the census had been announced, the Jewish herds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. When they had seen him, they marvelled at what was said about this child.

A Fifth Angel Appears

An open Bible is shown in a close-up, slightly blurred view. The pages are yellowed with age. A semi-transparent green rounded rectangle is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing white text. The background is softly lit with warm, golden light, possibly from a candle or lamp, creating a bokeh effect with out-of-focus light circles.

When Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, Mary gave birth to her firstborn son. When Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, Mary gave birth to her firstborn son. When they were going to be married, they were betrothed to one another, but before they came together, Mary was found to be with child. Her husband Joseph, being a just man, who did not want to expose her to public disgrace, had a private intention of divorcing her on the ground of being found to be with child. But when he had considered this, and because he was a just man, he did not do it, but intended to divorce her privately. When Joseph was thinking of this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, 'Do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. She will bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus, for he will save his people from all their iniquities. This is how it will be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophets, saying, Behold, I am sending my messenger before your face, and he will prepare your way before you. To the virgin shall he be betrothed, and she shall bear a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted, is, God with us.'

When the angels told her about the birth of Jesus, she was troubled and thought that she was being deceived. But when she saw the baby in the manger, she knew that the angels had not lied to her. The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own towns to be registered.

When the emperor had decreed this, Joseph went from Galilee to Bethlehem in the town of David, to be registered with Mary, the girl who was pledged to him, and to be with her when she gave birth to her firstborn son. As they were going, they met a caravan of Jews going to the same town. They went on their journey, and when they had reached Bethlehem, they found no room for them in the inn. So they went to a stable, where the baby Jesus was born and laid in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

Before God changes the world...

He changes the way His people think.

The Mind of Christ

The goal is not merely information.

It is transformation.

God desires a people who increasingly think, love, discern, and respond as Christ Himself.

The Mystery of the 144,000

A photograph of a narrow, rocky cave passage. The walls and ceiling are made of rough, layered rock. A string of small, round lights hangs from the ceiling, illuminating the path. The floor is a mix of dirt and small rocks. The passage leads into a darker area in the distance.

One of Revelation's Most Discussed Passages

A photograph of a cave interior with a dirt path leading into the distance. The walls are made of rough, layered rock. A string of small, round lights hangs from the ceiling, illuminating the path. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and ancient.

For centuries believers have debated:

Is the number literal?

Is it symbolic?

Does it describe Israel?

For centuries believers have
debated:

The Church?

A future people?

Or something greater?

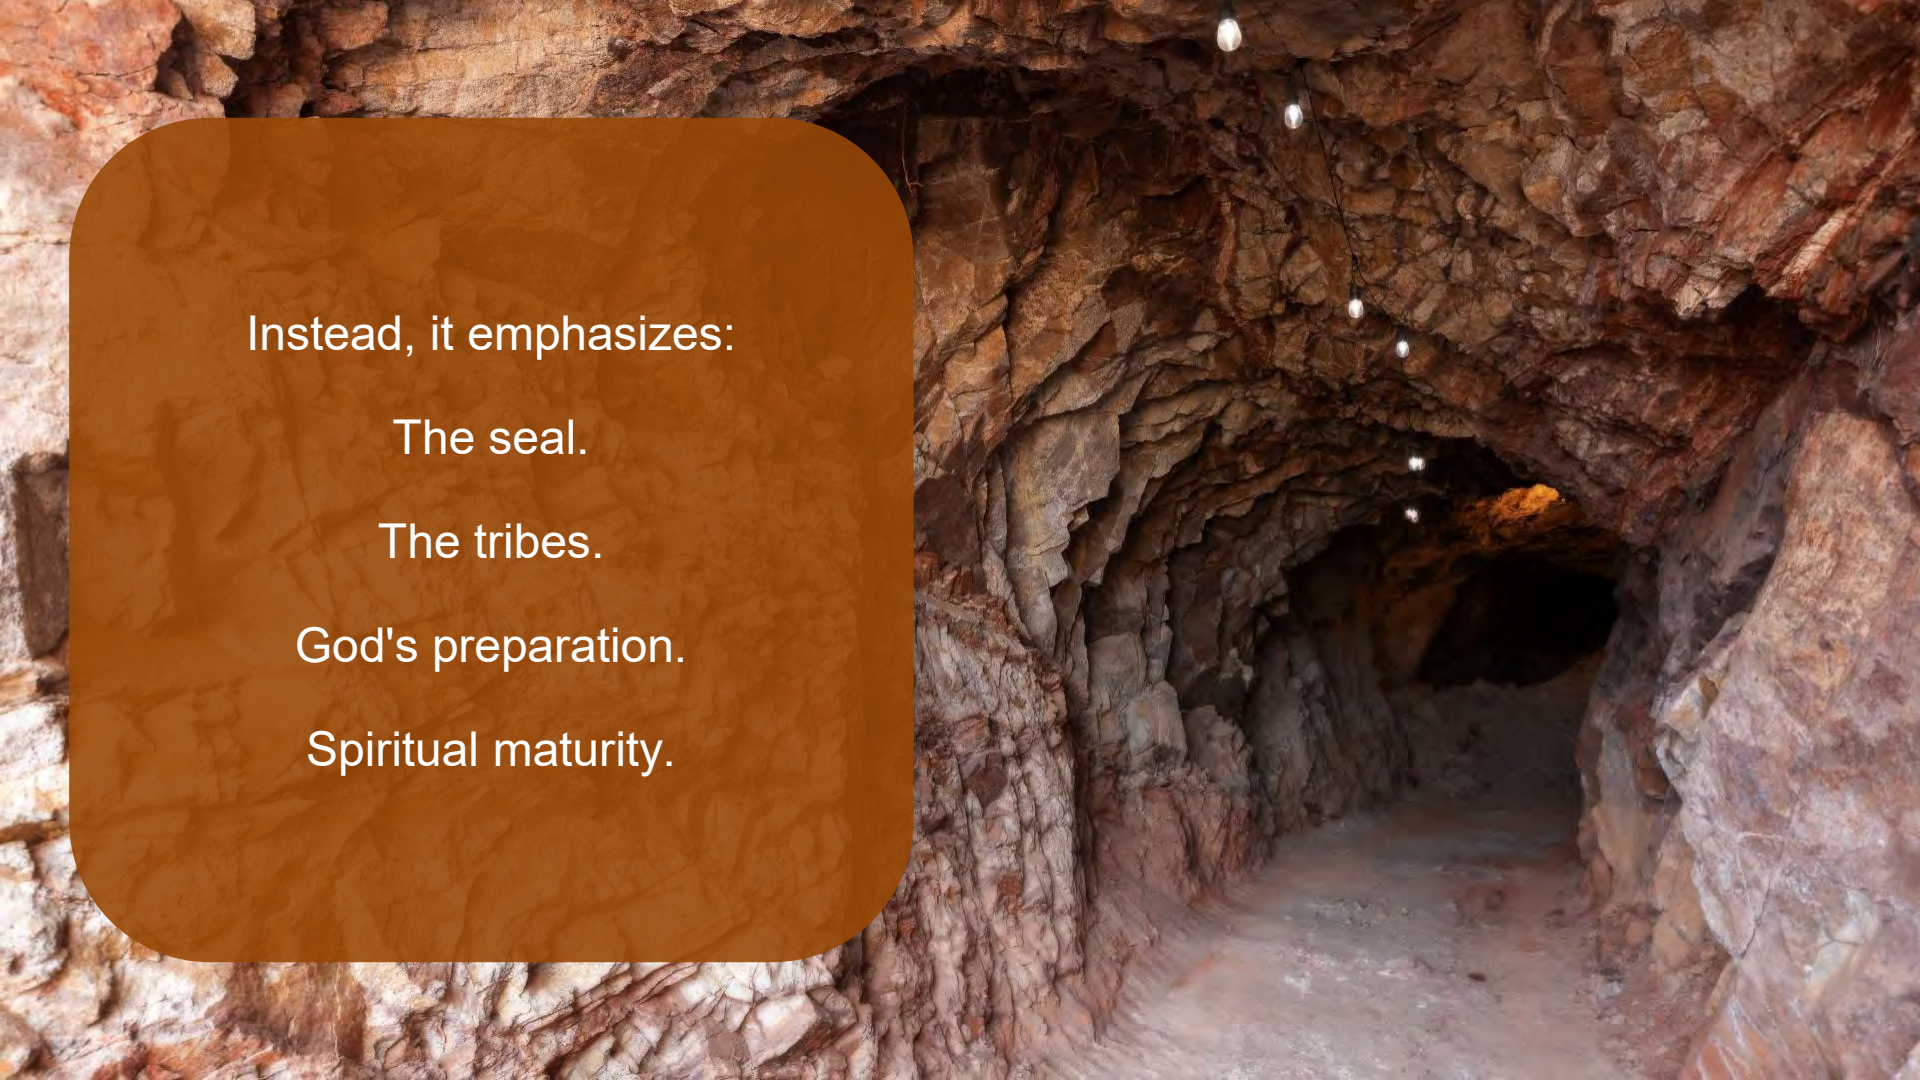

A photograph of a cave interior with a large brown overlay on the left containing text. The cave walls are made of rough, layered rock. A string of small, round lights hangs from the ceiling, illuminating the path. The floor is covered in a layer of dirt and small rocks. The text "Notice What John Emphasizes" is written in white on the brown overlay.

Notice What John Emphasizes

The chapter spends remarkably little time explaining the number.

A photograph of a cave interior with a dirt path leading into the distance. The walls are made of rough, layered rock. A string of small, round lights is hung from the ceiling, illuminating the path. The overall atmosphere is dim and mysterious.

Instead, it emphasizes:

The seal.

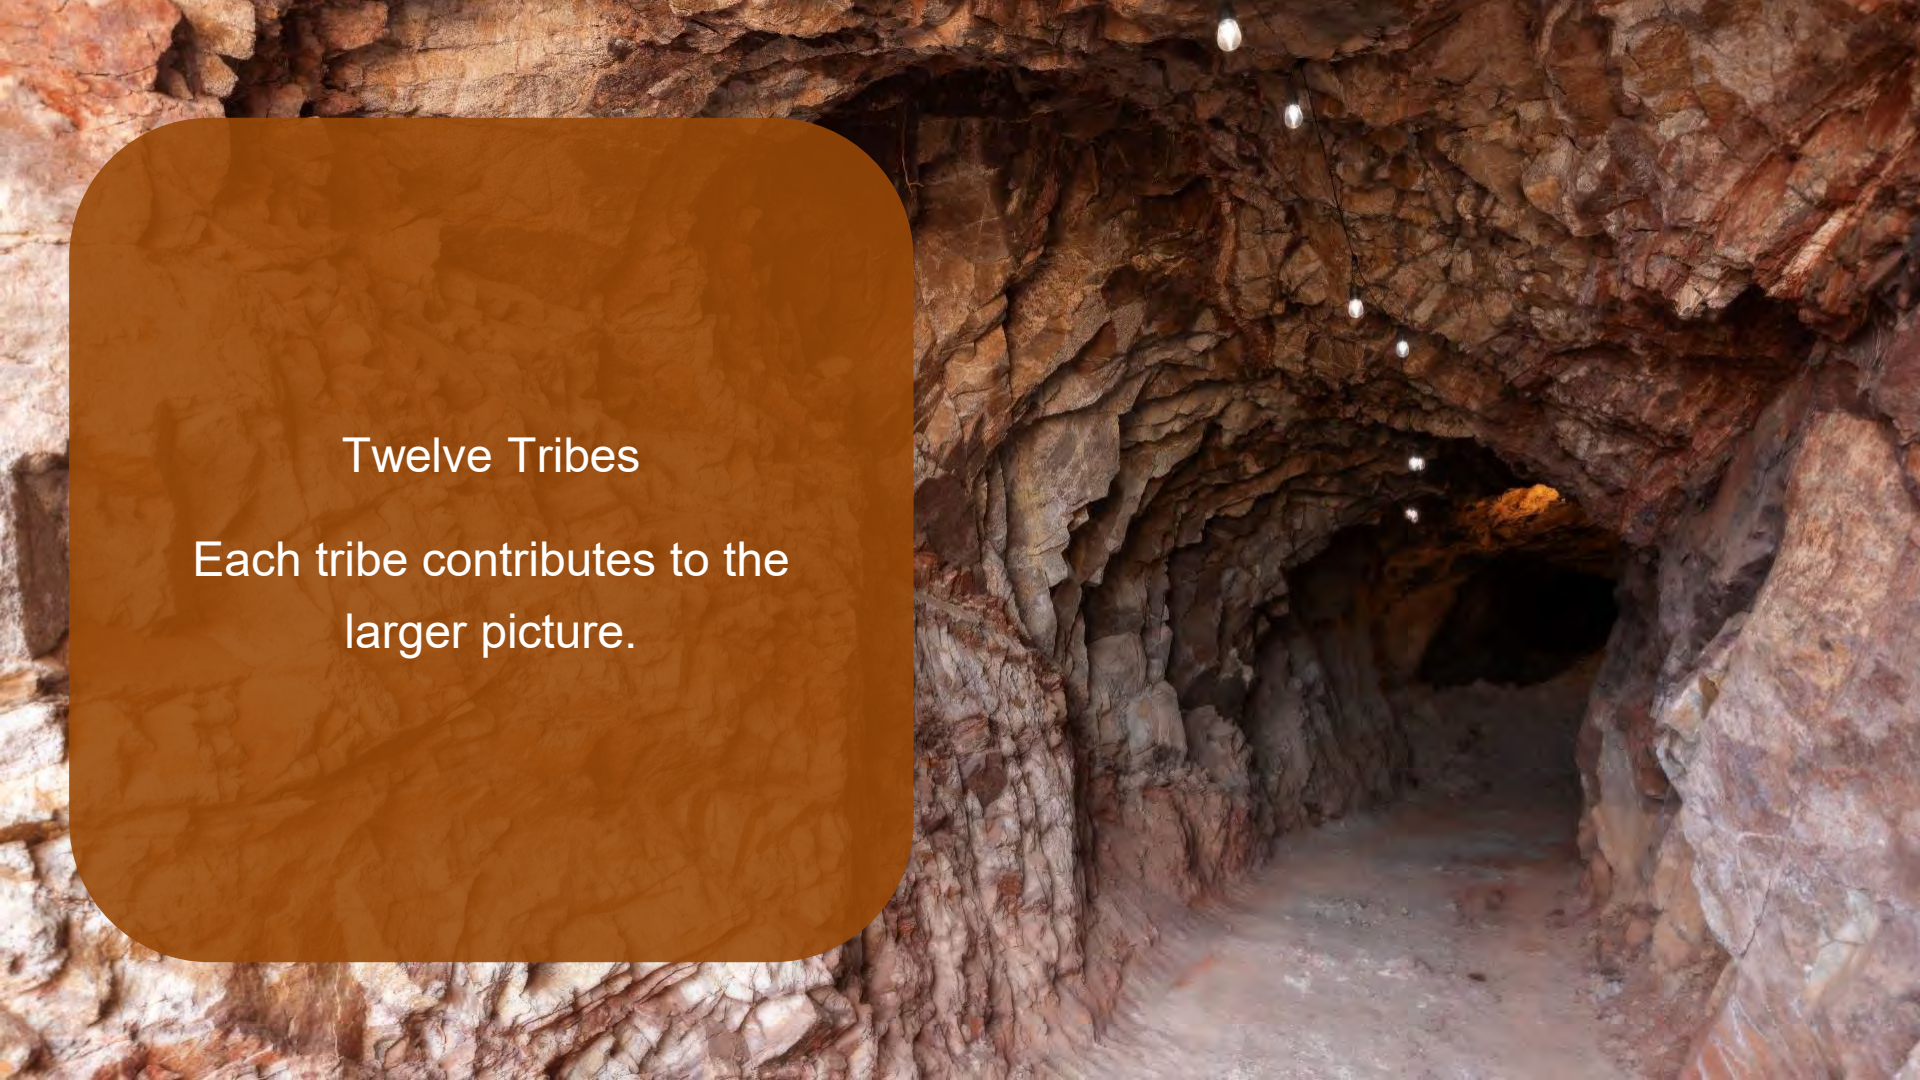

The tribes.

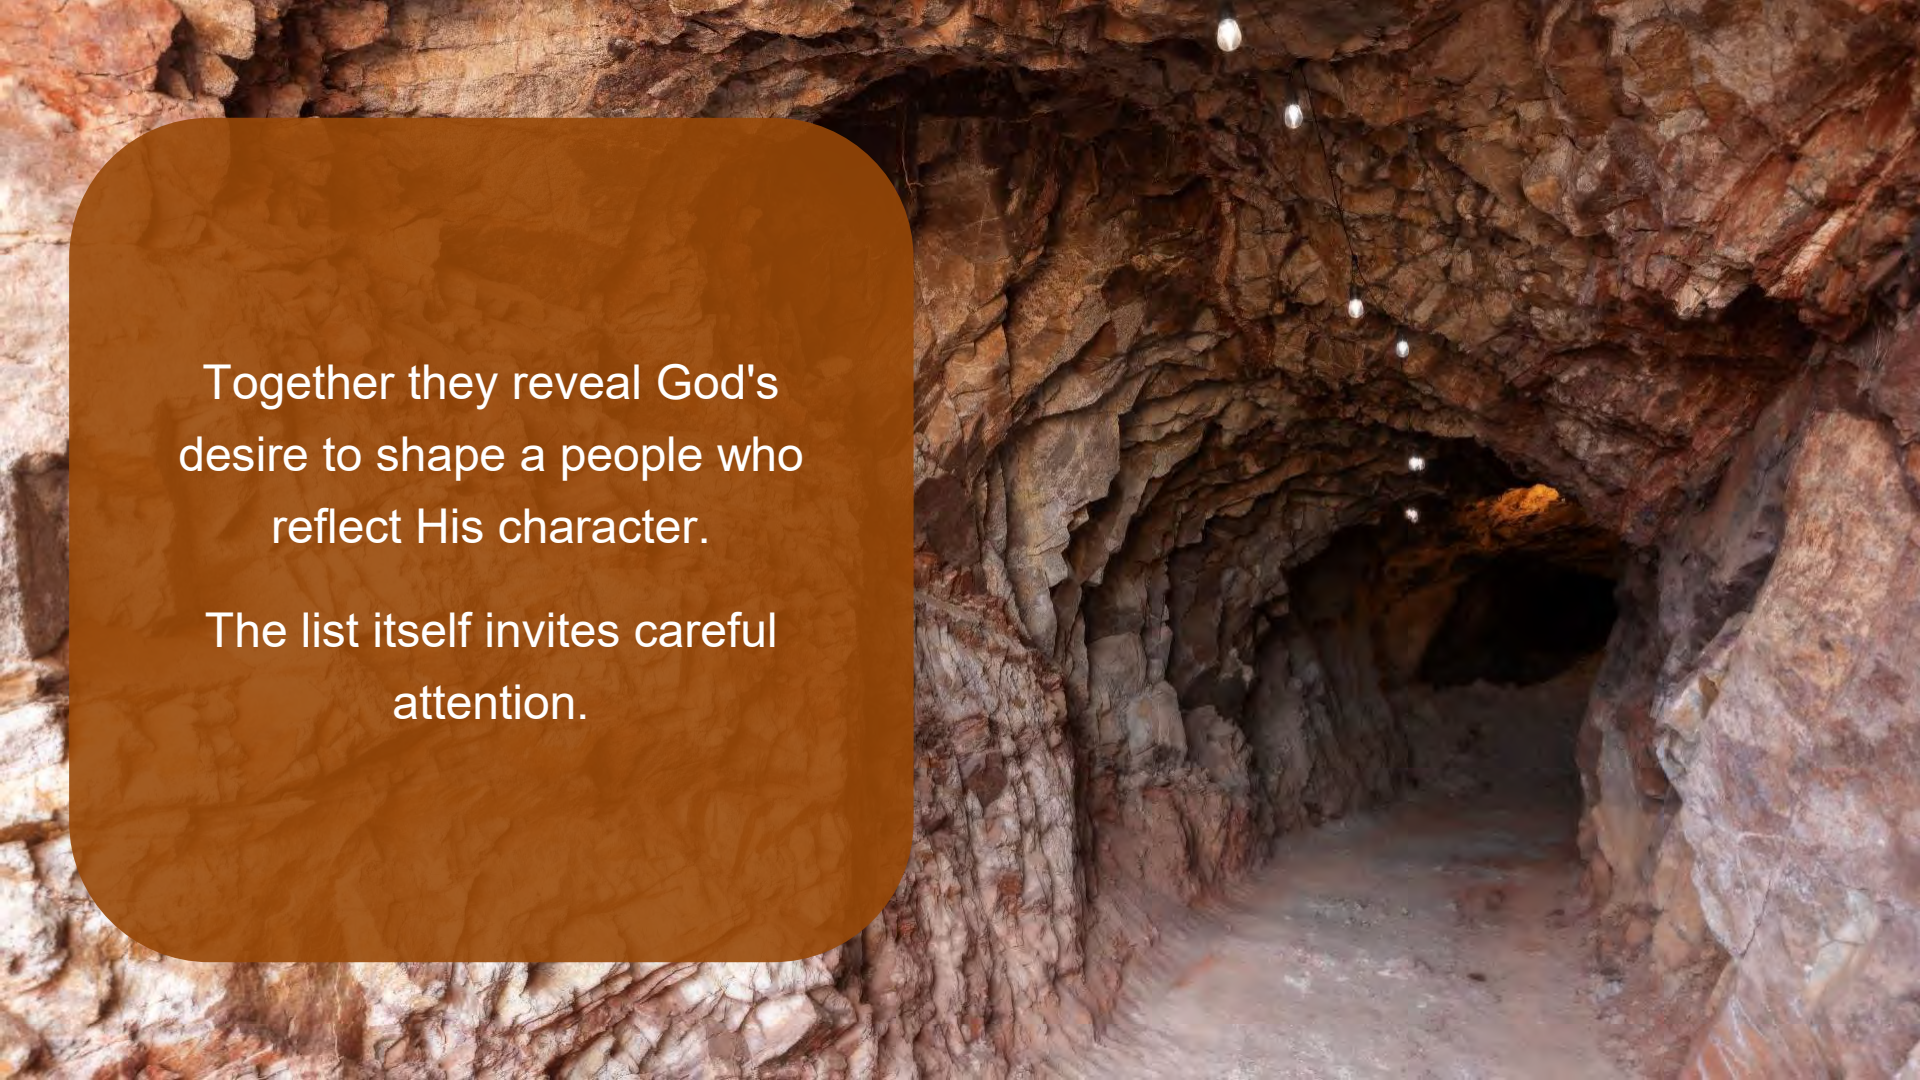

God's preparation.

Spiritual maturity.

Twelve Tribes

Each tribe contributes to the larger picture.

Together they reveal God's desire to shape a people who reflect His character.

The list itself invites careful attention.

Why this order?

Why are some tribes omitted?

Why are others included?

These details invite us to look deeper.

A photograph of four offshore wind turbines standing in a row on the ocean. The sky is a clear, deep blue, and the water is dark with gentle ripples. Each turbine has three white blades and a yellow base. The title 'The Four Winds' is centered in white text over the middle turbines.

The Four Winds

Winds Throughout Scripture

Wind often represents movement.

Activity.

Power.

The work of God among humanity.

Sometimes bringing blessing.

Sometimes bringing correction.

Always accomplishing
His purpose.

Why Are the Winds Restrained?

Because Heaven refuses to release what God's people are not yet prepared to steward.

God's work in His people always precedes His work through His people.

A Divine Principle
God prepares vessels... before He pours out purpose.

A hand holds a crystal ball in the center of the frame. Inside the crystal ball, a large crowd of people is visible, appearing to be gathered together. The background is a soft, out-of-focus sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with warm orange and yellow tones in the sky and a dark silhouette of the hand holding the crystal ball.

The Great Multitude

John's Vision Expands Immediately after seeing the 144,000...

John sees another breathtaking vision.

A multitude no one can number.

Every:

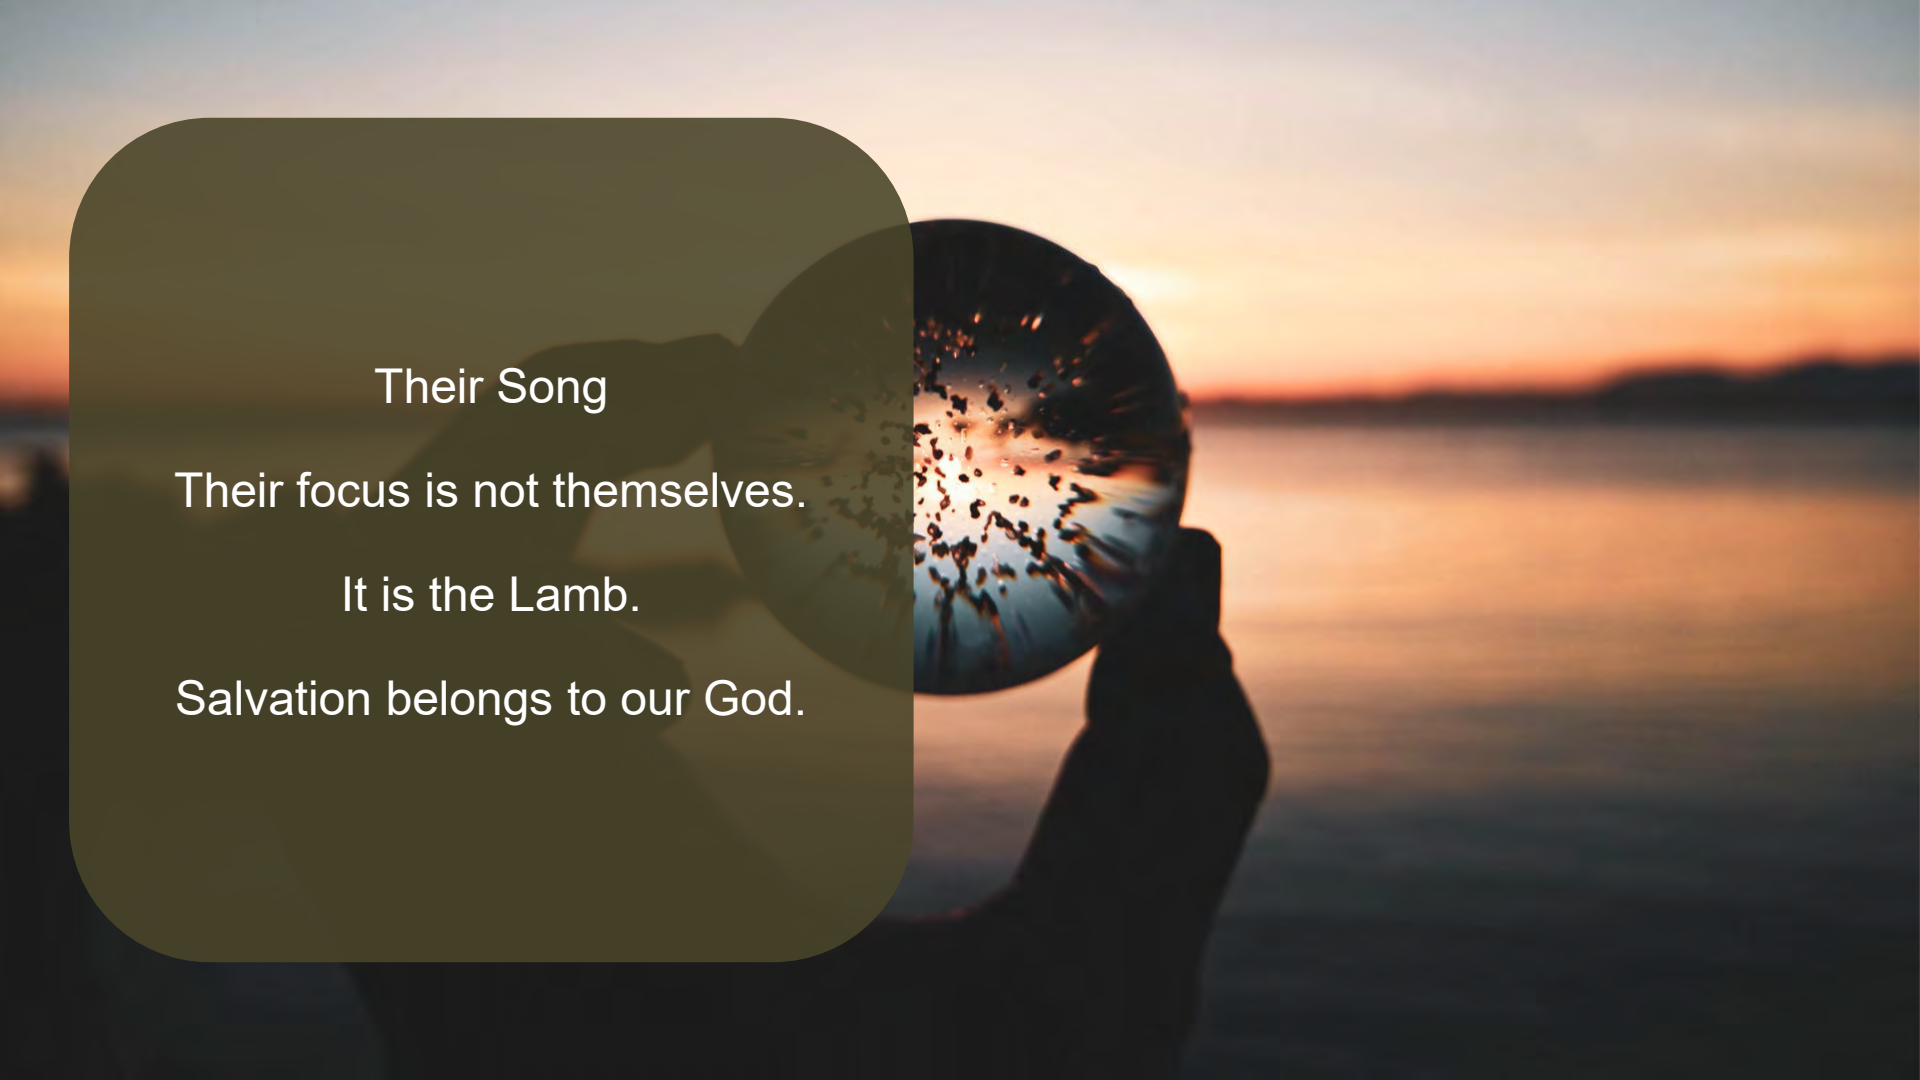

Nation

Tribe

People

Language

Standing before the throne.

Their Song

Their focus is not themselves.

It is the Lamb.

Salvation belongs to our God.

A person's silhouette is shown holding a crystal ball up to their eye. The crystal ball reflects a bright, fiery scene, possibly a sunset or a fire. The background of the entire image is a soft-focus sunset over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon creating a warm orange and yellow glow. The person's hand and the crystal ball are in the foreground, slightly to the right of the center.

The entire chapter ultimately directs our attention away from

and toward worship.

A hand holding a crystal ball that reflects a sunset scene over water. The background is a soft-focus sunset with orange and yellow hues. The crystal ball shows a detailed reflection of the sun and water, with many small, dark, particle-like specks scattered throughout the reflection.

Their Promise

The Lamb becomes:

Their Shepherd.

Their Guide.

Their Provider.

Their Source of Living Water.

A hand holding a crystal ball against a sunset background. The crystal ball is held in the center-right of the frame, and it contains a miniature scene of a city at night with lights reflecting on water. The background is a soft, out-of-focus sunset over a body of water, with the sun low on the horizon. A semi-transparent dark green rounded rectangle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing white text.

The story ends not in fear...

but in comfort.

Not in destruction...

but in restoration.

The Bigger Picture

Revelation 7 is not simply inviting us to solve a prophetic puzzle.

It is inviting us to become the kind of people God is preparing.

People whose minds have been renewed.

People marked by His presence.

People who bear His image.

People through whom Christ is revealed.

A close-up, low-angle shot of a person's hands in a prayer position (Anjali Mudra) against a blurred background of a sunset or sunrise over water. The person's head is bowed, and their hands are pressed together in front of their chest. The background shows wavy lines of water reflecting the warm, golden light of the sun. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Final Reflection

A close-up photograph of a person's hands pressed together in a prayer position (Anjali Mudra). The hands are positioned on the right side of the frame. The background is a warm, golden sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with long, dark shadows of trees or structures stretching across the water's surface. A semi-transparent dark red rounded rectangle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing white text.

Perhaps the greatest question isn't...

"Who are the 144,000?"

A close-up photograph of a person's hands clasped together in a prayer position. The hands are positioned on the right side of the frame, with fingers pointing upwards. The background is a warm, golden-brown color with soft, wavy shadows, suggesting a sunset or sunrise scene. A semi-transparent dark red rounded rectangle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing white text.

Perhaps the greater question is...

"What kind of people is God preparing in every generation?"

A person is shown from the back, in silhouette, with their arms raised towards a bright, glowing light source in the sky. The person is surrounded by many birds in flight, some of which are silhouetted against the bright light. The sky is filled with clouds, and the overall color palette is dominated by warm, golden-yellow and orange tones, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The word "Prayer" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font across the center of the image, positioned over the person's arms and the bright light source.
